

Now that you are “Measuring Up” we’d like to give your teaching a BOOST! We are excited to introduce the Let’s Play Music BOOST certification program. This program is designed to connect our vision statement to real solid results. Our goal is to...

Build Optimal Outcomes and Superior Teachers!

In order to yearly certify as a BOOST teacher, you will simply need to fulfill 8 of the requirements below. Mark the items below that you have completed and turn this paper into your team leader on or before May 15th.

Certification Requirements

- ☐ *Observe a LPM teacher. (One each semester)
Teacher Name: _____ Date _____
Teacher Name: _____ Date _____
- ☐ *Have another LPM teacher observe you. (One per semester)
Teacher Name: _____ Date _____
Teacher Name: _____ Date _____
- ☐ Enter students into Composition Contest
- ☐ Attend both fall and spring team meetings (a team phone conference counts!)
- ☐ Teach at least 2 classes (10 students)
- ☐ Attend LPM Symposium, or another qualifying continuing education class.
- ☐ Video one of your classes & turn in a self evaluation to your team leader
- ☐ Submit a write up/ picture to local newspaper about your LPM classes
- ☐ Participate in the Private Piano Certification Meeting
- ☐ Actively participate on the forum (25 post per year)
- ☐ Film your recital and post it online for others to watch. (Your blog!)
- ☐ Audit a training near you and get a refresher course
- ☐ Submit your “Raise Your Voice” survey comments to corporate
- ☐ Read a book from the first year manual bibliography list (in appendix)
- ☐ Report to your team what you read about or write a one page report and share
- ☐ Choose your own requirement and submit to Advisor for approval

(i.e. help with a LPM event, attend a music class, complete a theory workbook series for personal review, etc.)

* If you are on a ‘cyber’ team or are more than 30 minutes away from the closest teacher you can count observing a class by watching a video of another teacher. You can be observed by filming your class and asking another teacher to view it.